NAVY MISSILE COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS AND GUIDANCE

1. Requirements

- Document
- a. Change No. 1 to ONI-47-28 (NAVAL INTELLIGENCE REQUIREMENTS MEMORANDUM NO. 28 - TECHNICAL INTELLIGENCE TARGETS IN USSR AND SATELLITES) (NIRM 28), SECTION III PART A -- GUIDED MISSILES, SECRET, 14 MAY 1957

Although the title indicates that this document is devoted to requirements, it also includes some collection guidance. As might be expected, in discussing specific missile types, the greatest amount of space is devoted to the launching of guided missiles from submarines or surface vessels while the least is devoted to surface-to-surface ballistic missiles.

The document follows this outline:

1. Background
2. General Requirements
 - a. Information required on all types
 - b. Test Ranges
 - c. Air-to-surface
 - d. Surface-to-Air

Distribution

Very wide distribution to Naval installations and operating forces. Non-Navy distribution to all GMIC member agencies except NSA. Other non-Navy distribution includes ASTIA, WSEG, NTPC, Coast Guard, 25X1

Directive on

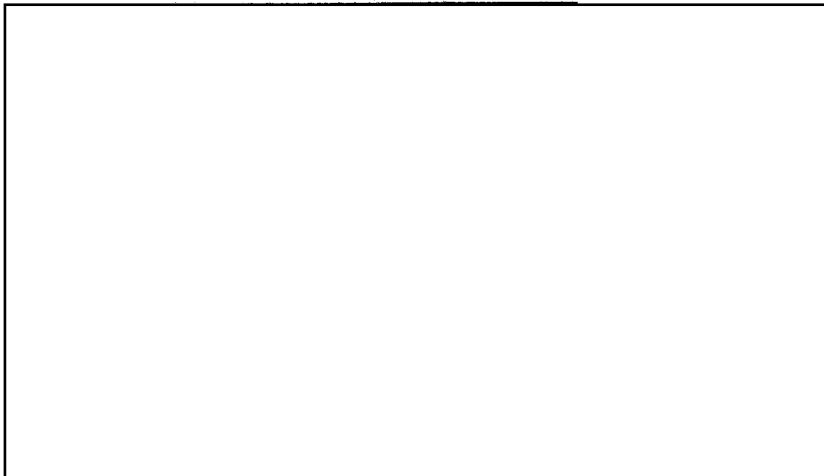

Primarily attaches, but also on all Navy recipients.
